Students with Medical Conditions

Students with medical conditions which prevent them from attending mainstream school, including a special school, may be eligible for enrolment at their local distance education school. Students with a medical condition, diagnosed by a specialist medical practitioner, that impacts on a student's health management and safety in a mainstream school may be eligible. The Principal of NEPSODE will consult with the Principal of the student's school to determine eligibility.

Specialist medical documentation must accompany the application and:

- ❖ Clearly identify the student's medical condition and health management requirements.

This category does not provide enrolment for students with behaviour disorders including students diagnosed as Attention Deficit Disorder (ADD) or Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), or students for whom school phobia is cited.

Enrolments are reviewed every twelve (12) months.

For Parents / Carers / Supervisors

Please acknowledge your understanding

- I confirm that the home learning environment is suitable for effective distance education provision.
- I declare that I recognise the role and responsibilities in my student’s education.
- I will undertake to provide and maintain an agreed mode of communication between myself and the distance education School for the duration of the enrolment.
- I accept the role of supervisor during the period of enrolment and carry out the supervisor responsibilities listed below.

Working with Children legislation requires all people working or volunteering with children under 18 years to have a Working with Children Check. Parents or carers who engage tutors for support should ask the tutor to provide a Working with Children Check clearance number, then verify that number online. Parents/carers can verify the status of a Working with Children Check number by using the online tool available from the Office of the Children’s Guardian.

Supervisor responsibilities

- liaising with the school about the program of learning that will be provided for the student and the scheduling of the student’s and supervisor’s time for engaging in schoolwork and the completion of set tasks
- supervising the student during school or learning activities
- supporting and encouraging the student through assistance with locating materials and resources needed for lessons, development of a timetable for work, provision of a suitable workplace and basic equipment
- ensuring that the student follows the course developed by the school and addresses, with diligence and sustained effort, the set tasks and experiences provided by the school
- interacting with the student as required by the learning materials
- interpreting and explaining to the student the spirit and intention of instructions or comments included in lesson materials or in messages from the distance education teacher
- providing feedback to the distance education teacher on the student’s responses to the lesson activities and on the student’s performance and interest, including advice about illnesses or absences that have affected the student’s ability to complete activities
- monitoring the student’s participation in satellite, computer-based or teleconference lessons and field services as appropriate
- supervising examinations and assessment tasks, as required by the school.
